A cup of coffee, straight from the tree it grew on.

At a glance

The day

A walk through the coffee plantations at Tengeru, and a visit to a local home where you'll see the whole process, from picking to roasting. The coffee is grown by the Meru community on the volcanic foothills of Mount Meru, and the best part? You get to drink a cup of it at the end.

> About the price. US$100 per person, as published on our existing site in August 2026. Most of that goes on park and conservation fees, which the authorities set, not us. We'll confirm the exact figure in writing when you get in touch, so please don't treat this sheet as a quotation.
